this might have on the rural economy, what could be done to the plants that they are currently growing, what could happen in that whole area should be of grave concern to all of us. And before things get carried to the extent where we have very serious problems, I think similar oversight, similar discussions need to take place, especially at the federal level. But I think in Nebraska, we need to take some responsibility at looking at that, and I certainly support Senator Beutler's bringing this to our attention now, and initiatives in addressing it in future legislation. With that, I will conclude, again, in support of LB 111 and thank Senator Brown for bringing it to us. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Preister. Seeing no further lights, Senator Brown, to close.

SENATOR BROWN: I think you can tell from the discussion that there is a great deal of concern and certainly the desire to have better direction as we go about proceeding on adopting policy in the area of genetics, especially as it relates to us, to humans, and I would urge you to advance the Commission on Human Genetic Technologies.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Brown. The question before the body is the advancement of LB 111. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 111.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LB 111 advances. LB...items for the record.

CLERK: Madam President, thank you. A new study resolution, LR 73. (Read brief summary.) That will be referred to the board. New A bills. (Read LB 111A and LB 362A for the first time by title.) Your committee on Enrollment and Review reports LB 10A, LB 16, LB 19, LB 40, LB 44, LB 46, LB 55, LB 61, LB 62, LB 71, LB 77, LB 78, LB 118, LB 118A, LB 122, LB 141, and LB 188 as correctly engrossed. I have hearing notices from the Revenue Committee, two different, actually three different notices from the Revenue Committee, and, Madam President, your Committee on Revenue, chaired by Senator Warner, reports LB 343 to General
